

QUALITY POLICY

We at Grindwell Norton Ltd Mora strive for Business Excellence by:

- Fostering a quality culture with objective of developing, manufacturing and providing products and solutions that meet and exceed customer expectations, thereby delivering competitive advantage to our valued customers
- Continuously challenging ourselves to improve the quality management system to guarantee product safety, prevent quality incidents and eliminate defects through process standardization and review of quality objectives & results
- Active involvement of employees and vendors in improving quality awareness thorough standards deployment, training & coaching and effective communication
- Comply with all statutory, regulatory, and environment, health & safety requirements